

Childminding Best Practice Club Membership Certificate

This is to certify that:

Amanda Ormerod

has been a member of the Childminding Best Practice Club since October 2017 and agrees to uphold the five parts of the Club Promise:

Childminding Best Practice Club Promise:

1. I am a registered childminder who aims to provide high quality care.
2. I have high expectations of the children's behaviour and ability to learn, with an emphasis on preparing them for school or the next stage of their journey.
3. I have a strong commitment to my own continual professional development (CPD) as a childminder and am open to trying new ideas.
4. I actively promote the Characteristics of Effective Learning in the children I care for.
5. I have high personal integrity and am committed to doing my best, even when no one is watching.
